

Welcome!

Antiochian Village offers several unique amenities such as a museum, bookstore, library, chapel, & meditation trail; however, most of our guests initially want to know what to pack and what to expect! Below you'll find a few important pointers.

Where is Antiochian Village located?

Antiochian Village Conference Center (AVCC) is a Christian conference and retreat center located on 300 acres, just six miles north of the historic town of Ligonier: 140 Church Camp Trail, Bolivar, PA 15923

What do I need to bring/pack for my stay at AVCC?

Toiletries

- Our lodging rooms are "hotel style", meaning that they come appointed with standard pillows and bedding, and each room has its own private bathroom stocked with towels.
- You WILL need to bring all your own toiletries, including soap, bodywash, shampoo/conditioner, toothbrush/toothpaste, hair dryer and other styling products/instruments.

Layered Clothing

- In southwestern PA, the weather can be unpredictable. To ensure your comfort indoors in your meeting room, we suggest that you come prepared with a light sweater or sweatshirt year-round.
- During the months of October - April, you will want to bring a jacket for exploring our meditation trail or simply walking the grounds.

Comfortable Shoes

- AVCC is blessed to house our meeting rooms, lodging rooms, and dining room under one roof. With that blessing comes an increase in step count for our guests.

Water Bottle

- AVCC has 3 convenient water coolers from which to fill your own reusable water bottle.

Appetite

- The Cedars at AVCC is a cafeteria style group dining room.
- The Cedars will be open for ONE hour during your scheduled mealtime.
  - Food service will run for the first 45 minutes, please arrive on time for meals.
  - Please clear your dishes to the dish room window when you are finished eating so that our team is not inundated all at once. You are then welcome to stay and socialize for the remainder of the hour.
  - Once the hour is up, please vacate The Cedars so staff can clean, reset, & prepare for the next meal. Food is NOT permitted to leave The Cedars.
  - If you have a medical dietary allergy/restriction, please inform your retreat coordinator, AND complete the Special Diet Request form.

Peace of Mind

- After everyone from your group has checked in, all exterior doors at AVCC will be locked.
- Each lodging room key comes with a small gray fob to gain entry at three exterior doors. Remember to turn your room key in when you depart to avoid a missing key fee.
- Our front desk office is staffed from 7:00am-11:00pm. Once the front desk office closes there will be an overnight agent onsite to assist with any late-night needs. Both can be reached at ext. 400. Hallway and public area quiet hours are from 10:30pm-7:30am.
